LOCAL NEWS.

John Swinburne, stockman, has been a visitor for the past week.

Pedro Montano arrived from Holbrook on Monday. Jury duty.

A special term of the District Court will be held at Saint John's, December 7th next.

A. L. Long, Territorial Superintendent of Public Instruction, left on Tuesday last.

Mariano Perea, of Bernalillo, New Mexico, has been in town for several days this week.

Robert Scott came in from Show Low at the suggestion of Sheriff Hubbell, to take a sly at the juror's box.

Judge F. M. Zuck, of Holbrook, was relieved from further attendance at the United States District Court, and left for home on Sunday last.

Capt. John T. Hogue has been appointed by the Board of Supervisors a Justice of the Peace for Springerville Precinct. A good appointment.

The luscious grape is being sold at the vineyards, near Albuquerque, at three cents per pound, and we are just two hundred and sixty-five miles away—our usual luck.

Emetio Baca, convicted of cattle stealing, and sentenced to six years at Yuma, will be escorted to his warm quarters by Sheriff Hubbell and his assistants at an early day.

Emetio Moreno having pleaded guilty to a like charge, and having a wife and eleven children, the Judge gave him one year, that being about as long Moreno's friends should be taxed to look after the well-being of that numerous family.

C. L. Guttererson, Esq., our District Attorney, has got fifty days leave of absence, and is going to use it all up in bringing Mrs. Guttererson from Chicago. Grand receptions in all the towns on the line.

A Springerville correspondent complains that Mr. Long has failed to appoint an Examining Board for the county, that sixteen school districts are without teachers, and will probably have no schools. We shall hope to receive a report from Mr. Long on this subject.

We call especial attention to the advertisement of Hunsing & Cooley, of Show Low, in this week's paper. With a desire to comply with the Government order relating to fencing, they propose to dispose of a large amount of barbed and plain wire at one-half its cost.

We call attention to the advertisement this day of the Board of Supervisors. The perfect registration of the County Warrants in their numerical order, will assure their payment under the law. It is important that all holders should report at once.

Another recent experience with a Gila monster furnishes additional proof of the deadly poison of its bite. The test was made upon a gopher, which, within a moment after being bitten dropped dead with scarcely a struggle, the poison evidently having paralyzed the heart and muscles.—Yuma Republican.

It is said that Holbrook possesses a large specimen of the reptile, and we caution its people not to gopher-it.

Instructions have been received from the United States Attorney General, by the Territorial Law Department, to enter an appearance in the case of the Territory vs. Lieut. Gatewood. Counselor E. M. Sanford, of Prescott, Assistant U. S. District Attorney, in conformity with the above order, will appear for Gatewood at the special term in December next.

Gen. Clark Churchill, the able and accomplished lawyer of the Arizona bar, left for his home in Prescott on Monday last. This was the first visit of General Churchill to the county seat of Apache county, and we are pleased to know that he has appreciated the kind attentions of our citizens, of whom he speaks with gratitude. The General will visit us again in December next.

Quick Work.—"The Court is now adjourned," said Judge Howard on Wednesday morning. "Mr. Ruiz what time will your records be ready for attestation?" "They are ready, your Honor," said Ruiz, the clerk, and so they were. Mr. Ruiz is always up with the court in his business, and the Judge highly appreciates his labors. In this instance Judge Howard publicly, and from the bench, complimented the efficient official.

Judge Sumner Howard and E. M. Sanford, accompanied by Mr. Charles Franklin, left on Wednesday noon for the Zuni Villages. Mr. and Mrs. Pechner also went out in company with the party. The Zunis are a very interesting and a horribly dirty people, and we have no doubt the curiosity of the visitors will soon be satisfied. After leaving the Zunis, the party will drive to Fort Wingate and then make for the Albuquerque fair to meet all the world.

Solicitor W. C. Hazeldine, of the A. & P. Railroad Company, who has been in attendance at the District Court of Apache county for the past two weeks, left us on Monday last for Albuquerque, where he had important legal questions awaiting his attention and determination on Wednesday, September 23d. Mr. Hazeldine is a wonderful worker, and his great success before the courts, show that his efforts are legally in the right direction.

Charles R. Moffett and H. F. Laird, having become a little weary of the solitude of "Esperanza," and feeling a growing desire for the seaside, have appointed Messrs. Barnes and Gomez, managers of their herds and flocks. We shall miss the genial countenance of our friend Moffett when we visit "Esperanza," and also feel a goodness when Laird's sylph-like form fails to float across our vision on the Little Colorado. Our loss will, however, be the joy of our friends. The beautiful shores of Santa Cruz, on the bay of Monterey, will compensate them for the trials they have had in the sage-brush, and alleviate our grief at their departure.

On Sept. 21st, 1885, the County Superintendent of Schools, apportioned the sum of six hundred and forty-six ($646) dollars amongst the various school districts, as follows:

District No. 1—St. John.....	$152 20
" " 2—Springerville.....	38 05
" " 3—Springerville.....	38 05
" " 4—Nutria.....	38 05
" " 5—Tule.....	38 05
" " 6—Concho.....	00 00
" " 7—Show Low.....	00 00
" " 8—Taylor.....	76 10
" " 9—Snowflake.....	76 10
" " 10—Woodruff.....	00 00
" " 11—St. Joseph.....	00 00
" " 12—Sunset.....	00 00
" " 13—West St. John.....	00 00
" " 14—Holbrook.....	38 05
" " 15—Bush Valley.....	38 05
" " 16—Wilford.....	00 00
" " 17—Meadows.....	00 00
" " 18—Round Valley.....	38 05
" " 19—East Show Low.....	38 05
" " 20—Winslow.....	38 05

The people of Arizona will be largely represented at the annual fair in the city of Albuquerque. Prescott will show up many notables from bench and bar. The press will contribute its prize beauty O'Neill, of the Hoof and Horn, and all along the line of the A. & P., from Mojave to Coolidge, the clans are gathering. Every man can consider himself a dead head on this popular line, so cheap is the transportation; to so small a figure have they placed round tickets. St. John will do the handsome. Henry Banta has varnished up his stove-pipe, and will swing "his long tail blue," at the San Felipe, and be the admired of all admirers on the Albuquerque boulevard. Brother Milner ought to go and superintend the publication of the Exposition Gazette. The chub of the Herald has already selected sleeping quarters under the grand stand, which have been fitted up, regardless of cost, with straw, for his especial accommodation. The progress the committee have made in Holbrook to celebrate the fiesta, has not yet reached us. Mr. Vilas has cut us down to three uncertain mails, without schedule, each week. Should it arrive before the Exposition of 1886, we will adapt it to that occasion. This is the last opportunity we will have to talk fairly to you this season—now don't fail to be advised. Go.

The Kinnear Case.—On the 19th instant the Kinnear case took a sudden and impulsive shoot. J. C. Herndon and E. M. Sanford had been employed by the defence to assist Mr. Baldwin in preparing affidavits for a continuance of the case over the term. The trio set to work, and on the opening of court produced such an array of cause shown, that the court and counsel for the prosecution were obliged to succumb. Mr. Herndon read the affidavits, the substance of which seemed to be that there were three material absent witnesses, whose presence was required and diligence shown to obtain them. One other point, and upon which the motion seemed to turn, in the mind of the court was, that the fact of an endorsement on the warrant was not made by the defendant Kinnear, and having been arraigned, plead and tried at this term, he had not had opportunity to properly prepare his case in that respect, the materiality of which only came to his knowledge on his trial. E. M. Sanford then opened the argument for defence. It is needless to say that he spoke in a forcible and convincing manner. The readiness of words and elucidation of the various points showed a clear understanding of the facts essential to be presented on behalf of his clients. Gen. Churchill replied eloquently, and affected seemingly a change in the status of the case, but when Mr. Baldwin replied in his usual deliberate and logical manner, it was evident that the case should go over. The motion was granted, and so the case goes over until next December. The stand taken by Judge Howard is fully appreciated by the friends of both sides, for in it the people are led to know that whatever pressure is brought to bear on a given case, or how presumptive the guilt, the law, rules and practice must and shall prevail so long as he is on the bench.
